

“How To....” Guide for your Flat White Website

Logging In

When your Flat White Design website is ready, we will send you a link, which will show a “Coming Soon” page:

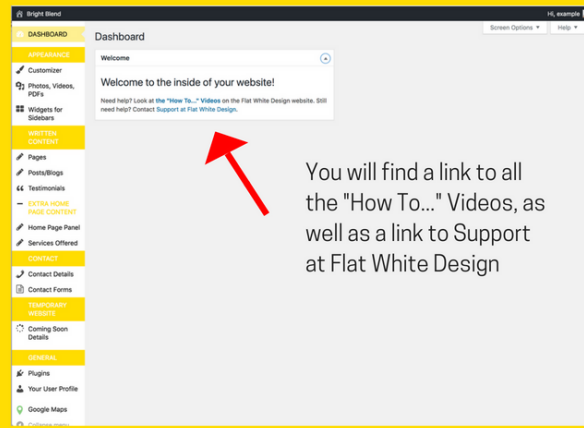

To log in, go to the address bar, and type in “/wp-admin”, then Enter:

You will then land on the WordPress Dashboard:

This is where you will access all the content on your website

You will find a link to all the "How To..." Videos, as well as a link to Support at Flat White Design

Find out more about the WordPress Dashboard here.
